The Rope Walk, Peak Cavern, Castleton. Castleton, the tourist centre for the hilliest part of the Peak District, stands at the head of the wide valley of Hope Dale. Near it are three of the most remarkable caverns in the world, the Peak Cavern (natural throughout) and the Speedwell and Blue John Mines. The Peak Cavern contains six or seven large chambers, the first of which is called the Bell House. The wide rock-paved vestibule of the Cavern is used as a rope-walk.

Dear Bill.
Thank you for paper. I do not stay in another week, so if I don't get a chance to write before we leave, I have the reason. I will write if I have time though, but we have a very every day planned, lovely day yesterday. I will let you have a very long and good write. I hope you are all well, he was pleased to see the paper Saturday, we had been to the Palace all day today. I am in Court.
With best love
Mother
